DAILY ITINERARY

Day 1: Departure from the Boston Area - Ferry Crossing to Long Island

This morning we take the Cross Sound ferry from New London, CT. to Orient Point, the gateway to Long Island's famed North forth area. We stop first in the cozy waterfront village of Greenport. Later enjoy a visit to the impressive Raphael's Estate and Winery, which resembles a Mediterranean chateau. You're free to wander the vineyards and production facility. Witness the tank room and their barrel cellar. You'll also enjoy a memorable tasting of some of the area's most exclusive wines. Our brand new accommodation for the evening is Hyatt Place East End in Riverhead. This unique waterfront hotel is ideally located in the center of this charming town often referred to as the gateway to the Hamptons. This evening enjoy a fabulous dinner at one of the area's most popular restaurants located steps away from your hotel. (D)

Day 2: Hampton Touring - Ferry Crossing return to Boston area

This morning a local guide will lead a most interesting tour of the Hampton's. Explore the famed villages of South and East Hampton, home to such celebrities as Jerry Seinfeld, David Letterman, Steven Spielberg, and Martha Stewart. Visit charming Sag Harbor to view its historic waterfront area amid Greek Revival mansions and Victorian cottages. Later we backtrack toward the lovely seaport town of Port Jefferson where you'll have time for lunch before taking the scenic ferry back to Bridgeport, CT. and continue our journey home. (CB)
