You set the pace on these drive-yourself weekends while we provide the first-class amenities, including a new Schooner River Sail from the Connecticut River Museum and a fabulous lunch in Chester! Highlighted by Friday evening tickets at one of America's world class musical theatres —

The Goodspeed Opera House in East Haddam—our weekends include a two-night stay at the Inn at Middletown, just 30 minutes away. Located on Main Street, the historic National Guard Armory has been transformed into an elegant 100-room inn situated at the entrance of renowned Wesleyan University. With charming, colonial-style decor, the Inn has a restaurant, lounge and indoor pool and spa. Main Street, part of the Broad Street Historic District, offers visitors a classic New England experience and contains a variety of shops, restaurants and entertainment. On Saturday, you'll drive to the quaint town of Chester for lunch at Brushmill by the Waterfall before heading to Essex for an exhilarating sail up-river on a tall-masted schooner.
