DRIVE YOURSELF BERKSHIRES WEEKEND

And TANGLEWOOD CONCERT

ON THE TOWN

A Staged Performance

Boston Pops Orchestra Keith Lockhart, Conductor

Friday, July 6-Sunday, July 8

Saturday Evening Concert, July 7

A concert at Tanglewood, the summer home of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, is an American tradition. This iconic setting, with the Berkshires in the background, makes for a summer evening you'll never forget. Accommodations are at the historic Red Lion Inn in the heart of Norman Rockwell's favorite town, Stockbridge, and we've included admission to The Mount, the lovely estate home and gardens of author Edith Wharton.

The Inn's main building comprises a variety of suites and guest rooms. Each room is individually decorated and carefully furnished. All rooms contain cable television, air conditioning and telephone. This year, for the first time, we also have some rooms in the Inn's Guest Houses. These buildings are former neighborhood residences converted to full service hotel rooms. All rooms have the same amenities and services as the rooms in the Main Inn and parking is actually closer. The Red Lion specializes in contemporary regional cuisine, served with gracious New England hospitality in authentic surroundings.

Bernstein's On the Town Saturday, July 7 @ 8pm

Koussevitzky Music Shed Lenox MA

Boston Pops Orchestra

Keith Lockhart, conductor

A collaboration with choreographer Jerome Robbins and the writing team of Betty Comden and Adolph Green, Leonard Bernstein's On the Town-the story of three sailors on shore leave in New York City- arrived on Broadway in December 1944, when he was just twenty-six. Based on his popular ballet collaboration with Robbins, Fancy Free (being performed August 18), it was not only his first musical, it was a first for Comden and Green, who would become Broadway and Hollywood legends in their own right. Hit songs include "New York, New York" and "Some Other Time."
