Lucca in Tuscany

Getaway For Thanksgiving

Saturday, November 21 – Saturday, November 28, 2009

Stunning Lucca offers all you expect from Italy—great food, art and architecture—in an unspoiled setting, highlighted by a centuries-old fortified wall surrounding the city. This colorful jewel of Tuscany is still a well-kept secret and offers a pace of life that varies between slow and slower. You'll have to tear yourself away from Lucca's charms for an excursion to Florence and a day on the Cinque Terre. Visit the weekly local market in Viareggio and walk through Piazza dei Miracoli in Pisa, with its famous "Leaning Tower." And, although there won't be stuffed turkey on the menu, you'll experience an authentic "Paesana Feast" at your farewell dinner.
