

THE TRAVEL CLUB

Pre-Departure Itinerary Roman Holiday School Vacation Week Sunday, February 20 - Sunday, February 27, 2011

Over 2,700 years old, Rome is an historic, artistic and cultural gem. The ancient Romans gave us the Colosseum, Forum, Circus Maximus, Pantheon, Baths of Caracalla and Catacombs. From the Renaissance came the Vatican City, St. Peter's Square and Basilica as well as priceless array of art treasures. Countless piazzas, palaces, fountains and churches establish Rome as one of the world's most beautiful cities. This holiday includes unique touring that takes you off the beaten path. You'll visit the Via Veneto, Porta Pinciana and Borghese Gallery. We've included a half-day tour that explores the most beautiful square fountains, including Trevi Fountain; Piazza di Spagna (Spanish Steps) and the Barcaccia Fountain; Piazza del Pantheon; and finally Piazza Navona and the fountain of the Four Rivers. A new addition to this popular holiday is a chance to unravel Rome's secrets on the Angel and Demons inspired guided tour. You'll visit some of the enigmatic sights mentioned in the novel and learn about the Illuminati and the Four Altars of Science. This vacation offers you a glimpse of Imperial Rome; Rome during the artistic explosion of the Renaissance; and the cafes, street corners and colorful lifestyle of Rome today.
